ANNOUNCEMENTS.

November Election, 1874.

For the Legislature.

The voter of Bolivar, I am a candidate before you to represent you in the Legislature. If elected I shall do all in my power to represent the farming and laboring interests of the country, and to secure the passage of laws that will be of benefit to business. I am for reducing our taxes, and for the reduction of the public debt. I am for the reduction of the expenses of the government. I am opposed to any extraneous legislation, and will support what is best for the country. Respectfully yours, W. H. T. Todd.

Armistead & Polk are selling a splendid line of goods at less than cost for cash. Give them a call.

Choice Family Flour $7.00 to $7.50, good XXX $6.00 to $6.50. Common $5.50 per barrel, all new wheat and guaranteed at

Joy & Morrison's.

Our town was enlivened last Tuesday by the presence of many distinguished citizens of Shelby and Fayette counties, who come among us to lend their assistance in selecting a suitable man to represent the 10th Congressional District.

New Mackerel, White Fish, genuine Sugar House Molasses cheap at Joy & Morrison's.

In Operation—The Woolen Mills at Leatherville, two miles north-west of Bolivar, are now in full operation. Under the management of W. V. and John H. Jones, sons of P. T. Jones, Esq., there is no doubt but what satisfaction will be given to all patrons. A good supply of meal is kept constantly on hand. See our another column of this paper.

Covington glories in a military company—O. B. Farris, captain. Don't shoot!

A foul and atrocious outrage was committed upon the person of Mrs. Benj. Mason, near Nashville one day last week by an unknown colored man. He fled the country.

The Radical County Convention

About fifty negroes and four white men assembled in the court house on Monday evening and organized the radical county convention. T. G. Patrick was made chairman and Jack Valentine, editor, secretary.

After a trial of what appeared to outsiders a species of formal skull-duggery, to give it, we suppose, the appearance of a trial of business, J. P. Wooster and T. G. Patrick were appointed delegates to the gubernatorial convention at Chattanooga on the 10th and Squire Woodfin was appointed to represent Hardeman in the congressional convention at Memphis on the 11th.

Halliday Brothers, commission merchants, and dealers in flour, grain, provisions, coal, salt, etc., No. 70 Ohio Levee, Cairo, Ill.

Enterprise Savings Bank, Cairo, Ill. A. B. Safford, president; W. H. Hyslop, secretary and treasurer. A first class institution.

Invisible Saloon, John Sturz, proprietor, 337 and 339 Main st., corner of Union, Memphis. Oysters, meats at all hours, and the finest and best wines and liquors to be found in the city.

Coffee at Joy & Morrison's 4 lbs to the dollar.

SINGULAR—On Thursday evening of last week a large carion crow, while at a great height over our town was suddenly overcome with some strange affliction, his wings ceased to beat the air and he fell in the center of Market street as dead as a stone. This may appropriately be called a death in the upper deep.

Joy & Morrison keep a good stock of groceries, and sell cheaper than anybody.

All they ask is a trial.

Towns Station has been incorporated.

Municipal officers were elected last Wednesday week.

ACCIDENT.—Mr. Morgan Moore of Bolivar and Miss Michelle Morrison of Memphis, were thrown from a buggy on Monday evening last and Miss Morrison was seriously, though not dangerously, hurt. In turning the corner near the residence of L. B. Adams, the horse became a little frightened, and sprang suddenly to the left, by which movement the occupants of the buggy were thrown out. A wheel struck the young lady, breaking her collar bone, and in the fall she received several painful bruises. Our fair visitor has the sympathies of the people here and we understand she is recovering rapidly. The young gentleman escaped unharmed.

The county superintendent of public schools requests us to say that all money now in the hands of the different district clerks and treasurers, must be returned to the county trustee, for re-distribution. Section 50 of the school law contemplates all money "unexpended," so that the money now on hand can not be held for future use or to pay for services rendered in the future. It has not been paid out for past service, it must be positively returned. District clerks and treasurers must also give a new bond for the future school year, as the bonds for the past school year have expired. Let these matters be ended to without delay. Let the bonds be dated from September 1st, 1874.

Joy & Morrison sell McFerran, Armstrong & Co's celebrated "Magnolia" Hams at 17 cents per pound.

You Know How it is Yourself!

Ye Loest ye BULLERIN is not much of a poet but he managed to put out the following dish of hash and respectfully dedicates the same to those who understand it best:

Were you ne'er a candidate,
And did you never root
In the filth and mud of politics,
Me handsome young galoof!

And did you never thirst aside
An old and trusting friend,
Just for the sake of 'nolbing
With another set of men?

And did you never stop to think,
As through this world you go,
That every one is doomed to have
His proper share of woes?

If not you are a hardy soul,
Fit to lead or stand,
In the halls of legislation
For that great and glorious lanl.

So take your seat in charming mug,
Away back in the rear,
And draw your peace like other geese,
From sweet glass faver beer.

MARRIED—Near Cloverport in this county, at the residence of the bride's father, on the 1st inst, Mr. Horace Hardwick to Miss Fannie Vernon.

We tender our congratulations to the young couple. May their brightest dreams of future happiness be more than realized.

A party of masked men visited the jail of Humphreys county last week and liberated the notorious Watkins. He is a bold, desperate man, and was liberated by his friends.

A fig for your stolidness! Why don't you peer off cheerily and plumb the track?

The places in Louisiana designated for troops to prevent outrages are New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Shreveport, Alexandria, Monroe, Harrisonburg and St. Martinville.

The proposition to loan the credit of Wayne county to the extent of $50,000 to the Wayne County from Manufacturing company was defeated by a vote of the people of that county a few days ago.
